The City of Lynchburg's Department of Parks and Recreation invites you to explore the diversity and beauty of Lynchburg City Parks. We are proud of our natural resource heritage and work diligently to promote its' continued preservation and interpretation. Athletics, Senior, Youth & Neighborhood Services Programs, Arts, and Naturalist Programs can be enjoyed at many of our sites. Other genial activities include organized sports, hiking, birding, walking, plant identification, bike riding, and old-fashioned picnics. There is something for everyone at Lynchburg Parks and Recreation Department.

- In order to enhance the park experience for all park users, please remember these few simple rules:
